

Treadmill for Students with Autism and Apraxia Protocol
(TAAP)

This is a treadmill training program that was developed by Debra Widmer-Reyes, Physical Therapist to address postural strength and visual-gross motor skills. TAAP consists of 6 developmental sequences that promote visual-gross motor learning through directional walking patterns. Improved visual and gross motor skills have proven to positively impact upon classroom performance as well as motor and visual skills.

More information can be obtained at www.taap-project.com or contact our office for more information at 908-879-7067.